

Email Dialogue Journals

Skills: Send and reply to email messages

Materials: Internet connection, email account

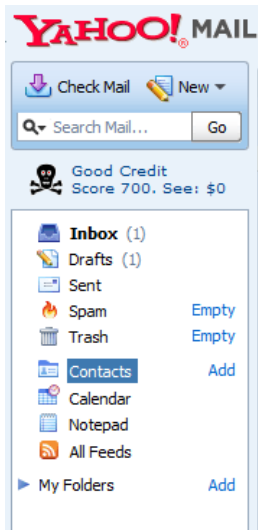

Activity 1: Use email to make a dialogue journal.

Email Dialogue Journals

If you and your instructor can each get to a computer, plan to exchange at least one email message between tutoring sessions.

If you will not be at a computer during the week, you can write an email to your tutor during your tutoring session and read the reply next time.

Activity 2: Add a contact to your address book.

This is your email address book.

1. Click on Contacts.
2. Click on Add Contact.
